Factors affecting your credit score

Equifax

- Lack of sufficient credit history
- Lack of sufficient relevant real estate account information
- You have too many delinquent or derogatory accounts
- The date you opened your oldest bankcard or revolving account is too recent
- Number of inquiries adversely affected the score but not significantly

Experian

- The date that you opened your oldest account is too recent
- You have too many delinquent or derogatory accounts
- Too many installment accounts with a delinquent or derogatory payment status
- Lack of sufficient relevant real estate account information
- The number of inquiries was also a factor, but effect was not significant

TransUnion

- The date that you opened your oldest account is too recent
- You have too many delinquent or derogatory accounts
- Too many installment accounts with a delinquent or derogatory payment status
- Lack of sufficient relevant real estate account information
- Inquiries did impact credit score and, for models that indicate it, no derogatory info found in the file
